Memorial Day Crossword

Memorial Day is not a celebration but a solemn day to reflect on veterans and military personnel who are deceased.

What Is The Meaning Of Memorial Day In The U.S.?

Memorial Day, observed on the last Monday of May, is a day to honor members of the military who were killed in service, both during deployments overseas or in training and service in the U.S. Across the country, Americans spend the day visiting cemeteries, attending Memorial Day events and otherwise honoring those who lost their lives in service to the country. The day also traditionally marks the first unofficial day of summer.

What Do You Say on Memorial Day?

Because Memorial Day is a somber day to honor those who died in service to the country, saying "Happy Memorial Day" is considered bad taste. For those who have lost family or friends through military service, the day is far from happy. If you feel the need to say something, try "Have a meaningful Memorial Day."

Your Fellowship Team

Dear Four Mile Creek Church Family –

I want to say thank you to everyone for all of the love & support shown to my family over the past two years! Rocky & I felt the power of your prayers throughout this journey, and I continue to know that you are keeping my name on your prayer lists. I am doing ok – just trying to keep moving forward a little each day. Thank you to Pastor Buddy for being a part of Rocky's service & thank you to the many who were able to visit us at Nelsen's & attend the service. Our family was so blessed to have so much help and input from Henrico Fire – Rocky always told me they would show up & they did & they have continued to check on me. Thank you to the "church ladies" (& men) who put together an amazing reception for us. Everyone truly did a marvelous job.

Those of you who attended the service or reception may not have realized that our sons – Wes & Stephen – were surrounded by their cousins at the funeral, & at the reception they took up more than one table. I am honored that so many in our extended family were able to be with us.

I find comfort in knowing that Rocky is singing praises to our Lord in heaven these days – I hope he is able to visit with all that have gone before him. I have said several times – Rocky crammed a lot of stuff in his 70 years – I am forever grateful for the many years we had together.

I didn't realize how difficult it would be for me to return to worship at FMC – too many memories in that sanctuary! For now, I am attending worship with my brother and sister-in-law, another source of comfort for me. Please understand that FMC will always be my home church & you hold a special place in my heart.

Love, Cindy, Wes, Stephen & family
